

PORT DALNY, WHICH COST MILIONS OF RUSSIAN BLOWN UP BY RUSSIANS

Docks and All Facilities of One of the Finest Harbors in the World Destroyed.

ALEXIEFF TELLS CZAR Wrecked Probably to Hamper the Landing of Japanese—Description of the Place.

ST. PETERSBURG, May 12.—Viceroy Alexieff has telegraphed to the czar announcing that the Japanese have blown up the docks and piers at Port Dalny, Liao-Tung peninsula, presumably to render more difficult a Japanese landing at that point. Later telegrams indicate that the whole of Port Dalny has been destroyed by the Russians.

Port Dalny, or Taiten-Wan, on the east coast of the Liao-Tung peninsula, was intended by the Russians to be the chief commercial emporium of its Eastern dominions. An edict providing for its construction was issued by the Russian Emperor in 1899 and Port Dalny, fully equipped with all modern improvements, docks, warehouses and all other facilities, was opened to commerce in December, 1901.

Taiten-Wan bay is one of the finest deep-water harbors in the Pacific. It is free from ice in winter time and ships drawing thirty feet of water can enter at low tide without difficulty and without the aid of pilots, can sail or steam alongside the immense docks and piers, where the largest ships can be loaded into railroad cars and run direct for six thousand miles into the City of St. Petersburg. The harbor had been constructed, each supplied with numerous railroad tracks and immense warehouses and electric lighting, and a large breakwater was being constructed so that ships could be at the piers and load and unload regardless of weather. Docks for foreign vessels, steam and sail, extended between the piers and along the shore for two miles. There were two first-class dry-docks, one intended for ordinary ocean steamers and the other designed to accommodate the largest vessels of war or commerce.

Over $5,000,000 had been expended on the harbor system before the end of 1902, and it was estimated that the cost of completing the works would be nearly $20,000,000, but this does not in any way represent the total cost of the harbor system, this great commercial port, which, with Port Arthur, distant about twenty miles, was leased by the Chinese government to Russia in 1898. Nearly 25,000 men were employed daily on the work of constructing the port and docks, and the population has been estimated at about sixty thousand, mostly Chinese, Japanese, Koreans and Russians.

GRAND JURY PROBES ANDERSON ELECTION

Indications of Fraud in a Precinct of the Third Ward Under Rigorous Inquiry.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.
ANDERSON, Ind., May 12.—The grand jury was called to-day and summonses issued for 20 witnesses, all residents of the fourth precinct of the Third ward in Anderson. This precinct is normally Republican by a majority of 25 to 50 votes, and under the most adverse circumstances has never more than 10 or 12 Democratic majority.

At the recent city election the precinct had a Democratic majority of 10 votes. This Democratic majority undoubtedly prevented the success of the Republicans in the city election, and as there are many evidences of fraud in the work in that precinct, the grand jury was asked to investigate.

WOMAN SENTENCED; HUSBAND ARRESTED

Mrs. Mary A. Powell Goes to Prison for Life and Mr. Powell in Trouble.

DOVER, Del., May 12.—Counsel for Mrs. Mary A. Powell, who was convicted of murder in the second degree for killing Estelle Aibin, to-day withdrew their motion for a new trial, and Mrs. Powell was sentenced to imprisonment for life. Alfred M. Powell, her husband, was arrested to-day on the charge of immoral conduct with Georgianna Ford, a sixteen-year-old girl, who was charged with being the accomplice of Mrs. Powell. The girl was an important witness at the trial of Mrs. Powell. The maximum sentence for the crime charged is seven years imprisonment and $1,000 fine. Powell declares he is innocent. The prosecution has charged that Mrs. Powell with having committed the crime through jealousy and that Powell's misconduct with Miss Aibin.

NO ANARCHIST PLOT IS FOUND AT VIENNA

VIENNA, May 12.—Nothing is known here of the reports published in the United States yesterday of the alleged discovery of an anarchist conspiracy to blow up Russian fortresses in the Balkans, a plot against the life of M. Von Plehwe, the Russian minister of the interior, or a revolution against the Russian emperor. Possibly the reports originated in the vague rumors of anarchist plots which were circulated here at the time which have since been contradicted.

MOVEMENTS OF STEAMERS

NEW YORK, May 12.—Arrived: Cedric, from Liverpool; Silesia, from London; Havre, Prinz Adalbert, for Italian ports; Laurentian, for Glasgow; Deutschland, for Hamburg.

QUEENSTOWN, May 12.—Sailed: Maestee, from Liverpool, for New York; Westerland, from Liverpool, for Philadelphia.

LIVERPOOL, May 12.—Arrived: Havre, from Philadelphia; Sagamore, from Boston.

LIZARD, May 12.—Passed: La Touraine, from New York, for Havre.

ANTWERP, May 12.—Arrived: Belgeland, from Philadelphia.

Montgomery, Ala., May 12.—Miss Marietta Porter, twenty-three years of age, residing at Milford, O., and who was visiting the family here, died at 10 o'clock, P. M., of a heart attack. She was the wife of F. Porter, committed suicide late this afternoon by shooting herself through the heart with a .38-caliber pistol. The cause of the suicide is a mystery.

WHAT DO YOU THINK OF THIS?

The Milks' Emulsion Company, of Terre Haute, Ind., are out with an offer to cure the worst case of stomach trouble or constipation in existence, or money refunded, and to start you off they agree to buy the first bottle for you, from your druggist and present it to you free of charge. All you have to do is to write and ask them for an order on your druggist for a free bottle, giving your name, address and particulars of your case.

This looks to us like a pretty good proposition. The fact that all druggists handling Milks' Emulsion are requested to guarantee every bottle they sell, is a sure indication of merit. Otherwise the Milks' Emulsion Company would soon go out of business, and we notice they have come to this front very fast since placing Milks' Emulsion on the market one year ago.

Rumor that Fighting Is Now in Progress at Port Arthur

(CONCLUDED FROM FIRST PAGE.)

of further Japanese reinforcements from Kosen. The Japanese are pursuing the Russians in the direction of Kai-Cheng. The Japanese casualties at Anlu were four killed and six wounded. According to the Russian report, the Russian casualties amounted to over fifty men. One officer and twelve men were killed, the others wounded. The Russians engaged numbered 700 and were from the Fifteenth Cossack Regiment. They reached Liao-Yang by train and marched thence to Anlu. "A majority of the enemy disliked fighting the Japanese," the official report says, "and their morale is low."

RUSSIANS NOT MAKING KNOWN THEIR PLANS

ST. PETERSBURG, May 12.—Further progress of the Japanese in southern Manchuria is reported in official dispatches issued last night. The position of the division which is following the direct road to Kai-Cheng has not yet been disclosed, and caution is also apparent in the operations on the peninsula of Liao-Tung, where 30,000 Japanese are seeking to render themselves secure in the western section of the peninsula and in the vicinity of and below Pitewo before inaugurating the operations which have been planned.

Nothing official has been given out regarding the rail of the Cossacks at Anlu. It is not known whether the Russian force at Mandaroff, of whose force the raiding Cossacks were in force, has been defeated.

The report is current that the Mikado, in answering a message of congratulation on the Russian victory sent by students of the Institute of Mines in St. Petersburg, expressed his thanks and good wishes, but praised God that he had no such subjects.

CROSSES OF ST. GEORGE FOR BRAVE RUSSIANS

LIAO-YANG, May 12.—The first distribution was made to-day of crosses of St. George to the men of the Eleventh and Twelfth regiments for bravery displayed at the battle of Kiu-Lien-Cheng. The fol-

300,000,000 ROUBLES ARE WANTED BY THE RUSSIANS

Official Statement Regarding the Finances of the Czar's Empire.

NEW LOAN TO BE FLOATED

ST. PETERSBURG, May 12.—The following statement has been officially communicated to the press:

"The war, which broke out in spite of the peaceful intentions of Russia, to the finances of the empire in a satisfactory position. The effective capital of the exchequer, which at the beginning of the year amounted to 182,000,000 roubles, has been more than doubled up to the present by reason of the diminution of the budget expenses. Now the whole sum at the disposal of the exchequer exceeds 300,000,000 roubles."

"Despite this the war expenditure must be very considerable, and on this account it has been thought prudent to discover a new method for providing funds. These funds might be borrowed from the State Bank to the extent of 500,000,000 roubles, but in order to avoid expending the effective capital at the risk of a disturbance of the money in circulation, and as the government wishes to see Russia at the end of the war in the same steady financial position as before the outbreak of hostilities, the finance minister has considered it necessary to have recourse to an external loan."

"By international agreement of May 12 for an increase in the war funds the issue of a 5 per cent. external loan for a short term has been decided upon. The loan is for a sum of 300,000,000 roubles, or 300,000,000 francs, under the title of 5 per cent. state exchequer bonds, to be repaid by the Russian government. On May 14, 1904, these bonds will be redeemable at the issuance price and will be presented for redemption in Paris."

"The flotation of the loan is entrusted to the National Bank of Russia, Lyons, London, and Hamburg, and to the National Bank of Germany, Berlin, and to the National Bank of France, Paris."

The statement published in the foreign press after the loan was authorized, and issued in Germany is officially declared to be without foundation.

FREIGHT CAR ROBBERS FIGHT WITH OFFICERS

One of Gang of Six Captured and Placed in Jail at Racine.

RACINE, Wis., May 12.—Thomas Burns, deputy sheriff of Racine county, battled with six desperate Chicago thieves to-day two miles south of Racine, on the line of the Milwaukee road. They were robbing a freight car and had piled up $3,000 worth of silks, bolts of cloth, boots and shoes and other goods when discovered. The gang scattered in various directions. Burns, who was armed with a revolver, brought to this city and lodged in jail. He gave his name as George Mason, and made a confession that he and his partners were, and that thousands of dollars' worth of goods had been stolen in the last few months.

EXPULSED FOR SINGING THROUGH HIS FINGERS

Students Divided on the Question of Wearing Caps and Gowns.

HARTFORD CITY, Ind., May 12.—Walter Neal, son of the Rev. E. E. Neal, who until the recent conference was pastor of Grace Methodist Church in this city, and is now of Elwood, was banished from the graduation class to-day by Professor Dryden for singing through his fingers, although he apologized for his conduct to the music master, but his immediate father, however, was present when the body was placed in the grave.

PERU AND BRAZIL FIGHT WHILE TALKING PEACE

Col. Arujo Attacks Peruvians and Is Repulsed with Heavy Losses.

RIO JANEIRO, May 12.—Reports have been received that another battle over the Acre dispute has been fought in the upper Purus valley. Colonel Arujo, who started from Chanchi with 220 men, attacked the Peruvians at Santa Rosa. The fight lasted twenty-four hours. Finally Colonel Arujo had to withdraw after losing many killed and wounded. Colonel Arujo says the battle was fought under unfavorable conditions. It is announced that the negotiations are continuing with favorable indications. Meanwhile the military and naval preparations continue. It is understood that the Peruvian fleet is being re-equipped, and that the Brazilian fleet is being re-equipped.

UNION MEN MUST PAY FINE AND GO TO JAIL

CHICAGO, May 12.—Twenty-three members of the brass workers' union, fined and sent to jail by Judge Jesse Hoiden for picketing the plant of the Kellogg Switchboard and Supply Company, have lost an appeal to the Appellate Court. The Appellate Court held that the union members were guilty of illegal conspiracy and must pay the penalties inflicted by Judge Hoiden.

SENT "DEAR CHILDREN" TO CERTAIN DEATH

LONDON, May 12.—The Daily News states that Vice Admiral Kamimura addressed the men who were going to bottle up Port Arthur as follows:

"My Dear Children: I am sending you to the most terrible death in the fight. You are victims promised to the enemy's guns. Had I sons I should be proud to send them with you. You will show the world the courage of the Samurai in the land of the rising sun."

Transport Amur Not Sunk.

ST. PETERSBURG, May 12.—The Admiralty absolutely denies a statement published in the United States to-day that the Russian mine transport Amur was blown up and sunk April 25, while laying mines on the peninsula of Liao-Tung.

The Amur was a small transport, carrying a large quantity of mines. It was blown up by a Japanese mine. The Amur was not sunk, but was damaged and is being repaired.

The Amur was a small transport, carrying a large quantity of mines. It was blown up by a Japanese mine. The Amur was not sunk, but was damaged and is being repaired.

The Amur was a small transport, carrying a large quantity of mines. It was blown up by a Japanese mine. The Amur was not sunk, but was damaged and is being repaired.

The Amur was a small transport, carrying a large quantity of mines. It was blown up by a Japanese mine. The Amur was not sunk, but was damaged and is being repaired.

The Amur was a small transport, carrying a large quantity of mines. It was blown up by a Japanese mine. The Amur was not sunk, but was damaged and is being repaired.

The Amur was a small transport, carrying a large quantity of mines. It was blown up by a Japanese mine. The Amur was not sunk, but was damaged and is being repaired.

The Amur was a small transport, carrying a large quantity of mines. It was blown up by a Japanese mine. The Amur was not sunk, but was damaged and is being repaired.

The Amur was a small transport, carrying a large quantity of mines. It was blown up by a Japanese mine. The Amur was not sunk, but was damaged and is being repaired.

The Amur was a small transport, carrying a large quantity of mines. It was blown up by a Japanese mine. The Amur was not sunk, but was damaged and is being repaired.

The Amur was a small transport, carrying a large quantity of mines. It was blown up by a Japanese mine. The Amur was not sunk, but was damaged and is being repaired.

The Amur was a small transport, carrying a large quantity of mines. It was blown up by a Japanese mine. The Amur was not sunk, but was damaged and is being repaired.

The Amur was a small transport, carrying a large quantity of mines. It was blown up by a Japanese mine. The Amur was not sunk, but was damaged and is being repaired.

The Amur was a small transport, carrying a large quantity of mines. It was blown up by a Japanese mine. The Amur was not sunk, but was damaged and is being repaired.

The Amur was a small transport, carrying a large quantity of mines. It was blown up by a Japanese mine. The Amur was not sunk, but was damaged and is being repaired.

The Amur was a small transport, carrying a large quantity of mines. It was blown up by a Japanese mine. The Amur was not sunk, but was damaged and is being repaired.

The Amur was a small transport, carrying a large quantity of mines. It was blown up by a Japanese mine. The Amur was not sunk, but was damaged and is being repaired.

The Amur was a small transport, carrying a large quantity of mines. It was blown up by a Japanese mine. The Amur was not sunk, but was damaged and is being repaired.

The Amur was a small transport, carrying a large quantity of mines. It was blown up by a Japanese mine. The Amur was not sunk, but was damaged and is being repaired.

The Amur was a small transport, carrying a large quantity of mines. It was blown up by a Japanese mine. The Amur was not sunk, but was damaged and is being repaired.

The Amur was a small transport, carrying a large quantity of mines. It was blown up by a Japanese mine. The Amur was not sunk, but was damaged and is being repaired.

The Amur was a small transport, carrying a large quantity of mines. It was blown up by a Japanese mine. The Amur was not sunk, but was damaged and is being repaired.

The Amur was a small transport, carrying a large quantity of mines. It was blown up by a Japanese mine. The Amur was not sunk, but was damaged and is being repaired.

The Amur was a small transport, carrying a large quantity of mines. It was blown up by a Japanese mine. The Amur was not sunk, but was damaged and is being repaired.

The Amur was a small transport, carrying a large quantity of mines. It was blown up by a Japanese mine. The Amur was not sunk, but was damaged and is being repaired.

The Amur was a small transport, carrying a large quantity of mines. It was blown up by a Japanese mine. The Amur was not sunk, but was damaged and is being repaired.

The Amur was a small transport, carrying a large quantity of mines. It was blown up by a Japanese mine. The Amur was not sunk, but was damaged and is being repaired.

The Amur was a small transport, carrying a large quantity of mines. It was blown up by a Japanese mine. The Amur was not sunk, but was damaged and is being repaired.

The Amur was a small transport, carrying a large quantity of mines. It was blown up by a Japanese mine. The Amur was not sunk, but was damaged and is being repaired.

The Amur was a small transport, carrying a large quantity of mines. It was blown up by a Japanese mine. The Amur was not sunk, but was damaged and is being repaired.

The Amur was a small transport, carrying a large quantity of mines. It was blown up by a Japanese mine. The Amur was not sunk, but was damaged and is being repaired.

The Amur was a small transport, carrying a large quantity of mines. It was blown up by a Japanese mine. The Amur was not sunk, but was damaged and is being repaired.

The Amur was a small transport, carrying a large quantity of mines. It was blown up by a Japanese mine. The Amur was not sunk, but was damaged and is being repaired.

The Amur was a small transport, carrying a large quantity of mines. It was blown up by a Japanese mine. The Amur was not sunk, but was damaged and is being repaired.

The Amur was a small transport, carrying a large quantity of mines. It was blown up by a Japanese mine. The Amur was not sunk, but was damaged and is being repaired.

CZAR TO VISIT MOSCOW FOR HISTORY; MAY THEN GO TO FRONT

Russia's Ruler Anxious to Undergo His Baptism of Fire in the Far East.

MAY NOT TAKE COMMAND

Probably Wants to Meet the Fatalistic Policeman Who Slashed His Face

ST. PETERSBURG, May 12.—The Emperor will go to Moscow Saturday to pray for victory at the Trinity-Sergius Monastery, and thence, after a few days, to Kharkoff to bid farewell to the Tenth and Seventeenth Army Corps previous to their departure for the Far East.

The Associated Press learns from the highest point, that the Emperor is exceedingly anxious to go to the front. To his intimates recently he has spoken much on the subject, but he realizes that conditions of state demand his presence at home.

Nevertheless, it is now not considered impossible that he will follow the example of his grandfather, Alexander II, who in 1881, during the Crimean war, went to the front during the Turkish war. Perhaps an official report will be given to the Emperor to meet the enemy is that he carried off by a fatalistic policeman when he was attacked in a theater at Otan during the night of May 1, 1881, only being saved from death by the noble action of his cousin, Prince George of Greece.

Shahin finally concluded to go to the Emperor would not assume active command of the troops, but would have an imperial hovel in the Crimea and Alexander III, with the help of his cousin, was at the front during the Turkish war. Perhaps an official report will be given to the Emperor to meet the enemy is that he carried off by a fatalistic policeman when he was attacked in a theater at Otan during the night of May 1, 1881, only being saved from death by the noble action of his cousin, Prince George of Greece.

Shahin finally concluded to go to the Emperor would not assume active command of the troops, but would have an imperial hovel in the Crimea and Alexander III, with the help of his cousin, was at the front during the Turkish war. Perhaps an official report will be given to the Emperor to meet the enemy is that he carried off by a fatalistic policeman when he was attacked in a theater at Otan during the night of May 1, 1881, only being saved from death by the noble action of his cousin, Prince George of Greece.

Shahin finally concluded to go to the Emperor would not assume active command of the troops, but would have an imperial hovel in the Crimea and Alexander III, with the help of his cousin, was at the front during the Turkish war. Perhaps an official report will be given to the Emperor to meet the enemy is that he carried off by a fatalistic policeman when he was attacked in a theater at Otan during the night of May 1, 1881, only being saved from death by the noble action of his cousin, Prince George of Greece.

Shahin finally concluded to go to the Emperor would not assume active command of the troops, but would have an imperial hovel in the Crimea and Alexander III, with the help of his cousin, was at the front during the Turkish war. Perhaps an official report will be given to the Emperor to meet the enemy is that he carried off by a fatalistic policeman when he was attacked in a theater at Otan during the night of May 1, 1881, only being saved from death by the noble action of his cousin, Prince George of Greece.

Shahin finally concluded to go to the Emperor would not assume active command of the troops, but would have an imperial hovel in the Crimea and Alexander III, with the help of his cousin, was at the front during the Turkish war. Perhaps an official report will be given to the Emperor to meet the enemy is that he carried off by a fatalistic policeman when he was attacked in a theater at Otan during the night of May 1, 1881, only being saved from death by the noble action of his cousin, Prince George of Greece.

Shahin finally concluded to go to the Emperor would not assume active command of the troops, but would have an imperial hovel in the Crimea and Alexander III, with the help of his cousin, was at the front during the Turkish war. Perhaps an official report will be given to the Emperor to meet the enemy is that he carried off by a fatalistic policeman when he was attacked in a theater at Otan during the night of May 1, 1881, only being saved from death by the noble action of his cousin, Prince George of Greece.

Shahin finally concluded to go to the Emperor would not assume active command of the troops, but would have an imperial hovel in the Crimea and Alexander III, with the help of his cousin, was at the front during the Turkish war. Perhaps an official report will be given to the Emperor to meet the enemy is that he carried off by a fatalistic policeman when he was attacked in a theater at Otan during the night of May 1, 1881, only being saved from death by the noble action of his cousin, Prince George of Greece.

Shahin finally concluded to go to the Emperor would not assume active command of the troops, but would have an imperial hovel in the Crimea and Alexander III, with the help of his cousin, was at the front during the Turkish war. Perhaps an official report will be given to the Emperor to meet the enemy is that he carried off by a fatalistic policeman when he was attacked in a theater at Otan during the night of May 1, 1881, only being saved from death by the noble action of his cousin, Prince George of Greece.

Shahin finally concluded to go to the Emperor would not assume active command of the troops, but would have an imperial hovel in the Crimea and Alexander III, with the help of his cousin, was at the front during the Turkish war. Perhaps an official report will be given to the Emperor to meet the enemy is that he carried off by a fatalistic policeman when he was attacked in a theater at Otan during the night of May 1, 1881, only being saved from death by the noble action of his cousin, Prince George of Greece.

Shahin finally concluded to go to the Emperor would not assume active command of the troops, but would have an imperial hovel in the Crimea and Alexander III, with the help of his cousin, was at the front during the Turkish war. Perhaps an official report will be given to the Emperor to meet the enemy is that he carried off by a fatalistic policeman when he was attacked in a theater at Otan during the night of May 1, 1881, only being saved from death by the noble action of his cousin, Prince George of Greece.

Shahin finally concluded to go to the Emperor would not assume active command of the troops, but would have an imperial hovel in the Crimea and Alexander III, with the help of his cousin, was at the front during the Turkish war. Perhaps an official report will be given to the Emperor to meet the enemy is that he carried off by a fatalistic policeman when he was attacked in a theater at Otan during the night of May 1, 1881, only being saved from death by the noble action of his cousin, Prince George of Greece.

Shahin finally concluded to go to the Emperor would not assume active command of the troops, but would have an imperial hovel in the Crimea and Alexander III, with the help of his cousin, was at the front during the Turkish war. Perhaps an official report will be given to the Emperor to meet the enemy is that he carried off by a fatalistic policeman when he was attacked in a theater at Otan during the night of May 1, 1881, only being saved from death by the noble action of his cousin, Prince George of Greece.

Shahin finally concluded to go to the Emperor would not assume active command of the troops, but would have an imperial hovel in the Crimea and Alexander III, with the help of his cousin, was at the front during the Turkish war. Perhaps an official report will be given to the Emperor to meet the enemy is that he carried off by a fatalistic policeman when he was attacked in a theater at Otan during the night of May 1, 1881, only being saved from death by the noble action of his cousin, Prince George of Greece.

Shahin finally concluded to go to the Emperor would not assume active command of the troops, but would have an imperial hovel in the Crimea and Alexander III, with the help of his cousin, was at the front during the Turkish war. Perhaps an official report will be given to the Emperor to meet the enemy is that he carried off by a fatalistic policeman when he was attacked in a theater at Otan during the night of May 1, 1881, only being saved from death by the noble action of his cousin, Prince George of Greece.

Shahin finally concluded to go to the Emperor would not assume active command of the troops, but would have an imperial hovel in the Crimea and Alexander III, with the help of his cousin, was at the front during the Turkish war. Perhaps an official report will be given to the Emperor to meet the enemy is that he carried off by a fatalistic policeman when he was attacked in a theater at Otan during the night of May 1, 1881, only being saved from death by the noble action of his cousin, Prince George of Greece.

Shahin finally concluded to go to the Emperor would not assume active command of the troops, but would have an imperial hovel in the Crimea and Alexander III, with the help of his cousin, was at the front during the Turkish war. Perhaps an official report will be given to the Emperor to meet the enemy is that he carried off by a fatalistic policeman when he was attacked in a theater at Otan during the night of May 1, 1881, only being saved from death by the noble action of his cousin, Prince George of Greece.

Shahin finally concluded to go to the Emperor would not assume active command of the troops, but would have an imperial hovel in the Crimea and Alexander III, with the help of his cousin, was at the front during the Turkish war. Perhaps an official report will be given to the Emperor to meet the enemy is that he carried off by a fatalistic policeman when he was attacked in a theater at Otan during the night of May 1, 1881, only being saved from death by the noble action of his cousin, Prince George of Greece.

Shahin finally concluded to go to the Emperor would not assume active command of the troops, but would have an imperial hovel in the Crimea and Alexander III, with the help of his cousin, was at the front during the Turkish war. Perhaps an official report will be given to the Emperor to meet the enemy is that he carried off by a fatalistic policeman when he was attacked in a theater at Otan during the night of May 1, 1881, only being saved from death by the noble action of his cousin, Prince George of Greece.

Shahin finally concluded to go to the Emperor would not assume active command of the troops, but would have an imperial hovel in the Crimea and Alexander III, with the help of his cousin, was at the front during the Turkish war. Perhaps an official report will be given to the Emperor to meet the enemy is that he carried off by a fatalistic policeman when he was attacked in a theater at Otan during the night of May 1, 1881, only being saved from death by the noble action of his cousin, Prince George of Greece.

Shahin finally concluded to go to the Emperor would not assume active command of the troops, but would have an imperial hovel in the Crimea and Alexander III, with the help of his cousin, was at the front during the Turkish war. Perhaps an official report will be given to the Emperor to meet the enemy is that he carried off by a fatalistic policeman when he was attacked in a theater at Otan during the night of May 1, 1881, only being saved from death by the noble action of his cousin, Prince George of Greece.

Shahin finally concluded to go to the Emperor would not assume active command of the troops, but would have an imperial hovel in the Crimea and Alexander III, with the help of his cousin, was at the front during the Turkish war. Perhaps an official report will be given to the Emperor to meet the enemy is that he carried off by a fatalistic policeman when he was attacked in a theater at Otan during the night of May 1, 1881, only being saved from death by the noble action of his cousin, Prince George of Greece.

Shahin finally concluded to go to the Emperor would not assume active command of the troops, but would have an imperial hovel in the Crimea and Alexander III, with the help of his cousin, was at the front during the Turkish war. Perhaps an official report will be given to the Emperor to meet the enemy is that he carried off by a fatalistic policeman when he was attacked in a theater at Otan during the night of May 1, 1881, only being saved from death by the noble action of his cousin, Prince George of Greece.

Shahin finally concluded to go to the Emperor would not assume active command of the troops, but would have an imperial hovel in the Crimea and Alexander III, with the help of his cousin, was at the front during the Turkish war. Perhaps an official report will be given to the Emperor to meet the enemy is that he carried off by a fatalistic policeman when he was attacked in a theater at Otan during the night of May 1, 1881, only being saved from death by the noble action of his cousin, Prince George of Greece.

Shahin finally concluded to go to the Emperor would not assume active command of the troops, but would have an imperial hovel in the Crimea and Alexander III, with the help of his cousin, was at the front during the Turkish war. Perhaps an official report will be given to the Emperor to meet the enemy is that he carried off by a fatalistic policeman when he was attacked in a theater at Otan during the night of May 1, 1881, only being saved from death by the noble action of his cousin, Prince George of Greece.

Shahin finally concluded to go to the Emperor would not assume active command of the troops, but would have an imperial hovel in the Crimea and Alexander III, with the help of his cousin, was at the front during the Turkish war. Perhaps an official report will be given to the Emperor to meet the enemy is that he carried off by a fatalistic policeman when he was attacked in a theater at Otan during the night of May 1, 1881, only being saved from death by the noble action of his cousin, Prince George of Greece.

Shahin finally concluded to go to the Emperor would not assume active command of the troops, but would have an imperial hovel in the Crimea and Alexander III, with the help of his cousin, was at the front during the Turkish war. Perhaps an official report will be given to the Emperor to meet the enemy is that he carried off by a fatalistic policeman when he was attacked in a theater at Otan during the night of May 1, 1881, only being saved from death by the noble action of his cousin, Prince George of Greece.